

If you are suing the United States Government

Federal Rule 4(i) says that when you sue the U.S. government, or its agencies, officers, or employees in their official capacities, you will need to serve summonses on three separate parties. They are:

1. The United States Attorney General

Office of the Attorney General
Department of Justice
10th & Pennsylvania Ave., N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20530

2. The head of the agency you are suing-- If you are suing a local government agency, you need to serve that office's headquarters, usually in Washington, D.C. For example, if you were injured at a local Post Office, you would actually serve the Postmaster General in Washington, not the local Post Office. In social security cases, the Regional Chief Counsel in Kansas City is served instead of the Commissioner.

Some frequently named defendants include:

Office of the Regional Chief Counsel, Region VIII
Social Security Administration
1961 Stout Street, Ste 4169
Denver, CO 80294

U.S. Postmaster General
475 L'Enfant Plaza, S. W.
Washington, D.C. 20260-0010

Secretary, Department of Treasury
1500 Pennsylvania Ave., N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20260-0010
