

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF KANSAS

Re: Standard Conditions of Supervision )

STANDING ORDER NO. 19-03
(formerly Standing Order No. 16-02)

In an effort to establish uniformity in the terms and conditions of supervision of defendants placed on probation or supervised release, the U.S. District Court for the District of Kansas hereby adopts the Mandatory and Standard conditions of supervision recommended by the Judicial Conference effective November 1, 2016. THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, that pursuant to D. Kan. Rule 83.1.2 and 18 U.S.C. §§ 3563(a) and 3583(d), the following standard conditions of probation and supervised release are in effect for any defendant sentenced, or resentenced, on or after November 1, 2016:

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.

7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or Tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may, after obtaining court approval, require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

This Order supersedes this court's prior Standing Order on this matter and shall remain in full force and effect pending modification as deemed necessary by the court.

Dated this 15th day of August, 2019.
